Issue 12 – Term 3 – Week 3

Wednesday 2nd August, 2017

Principal's Message

Education Week

The school celebrated Public Education Week last Monday morning. With a record parent community at this celebration assembly, we showcased performances from our junior and senior dance group, band and choir.

As a public school principal, I am proud of the work that we, as a public school system, achieve. As indicated by the theme of Public Education Week, 'I learn. We learn.' our teachers work tirelessly learning new ways of developing the skills, knowledge and understanding of our students, regardless of their language and cultural background, identity, beliefs and socioeconomic status. As mentioned at the assembly, we prepare them for opportunities that may come their way. We prepare them, socially, emotionally and academically so that they can become the strong, successful and independent adults who may contribute positively to society and the world. Our vision for our students is to aim high and become successful learners, confident and creative individuals and active and informed global citizens.

Congratulations to all our students who performed on the day and I extend that to all our teachers, especially Miss Munzone, Mrs Gleeson, Mr Metliss, Mrs Hodgson, Mr Forrester, Miss Robinson, Ms Tasipale and Mrs Gray for their hard work in getting our students ready for Monday's performances.

The Smith Family

I would like to thank every lovely student and staff member for generously donating a gift (or in some cases a bag of gifts) for The Smith Family. Melanie, our visiting speaker, was so impressed with the kindness shown to others who are truly doing it tough. Think of the big smile on the faces of these children at Christmas time. What a lovely community we have at Penshurst Public School.

KM have been learning how to write sentences independently.
