Description:	Dear Parents and Caregivers,
	As part of our Semester 2 history unit, 'Past and Present Family Life', Yr 2 students will be attending an excursion at Fairfield City Museum & Gallery on Tuesday, 30th July (2S and 2GE). The Living the Past program has been specifically designed to give visiting students a glimpse into the lives of early European settlers in western Sydney. The museum's heritage buildings, such as its 1880's Slab Hut, help to evoke the atmosphere of earlier days, when life for the area's inhabitants was very different. Knowledgeable volunteer staff interpret each on site exhibit, bringing to life a time that today's school students will not have experienced before.
